COMPLAINANT'S STATEMENT OF FACTS CONSTITUTING THE OFFENSE OR VIOLATION:  Beginning at a time unknown, and continuing to on or about January 28, 2022, at or near Nogales, in the District of Arizona, Megan Marie Floyd and Jaylene Emerald Weitzman did knowingly and intentionally combine, conspire, confederate and agree together and with other persons known and unknown to possess with intent to distribute 40 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of fentanyl, a Schedule II controlled substance, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(B)(vi). All in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846.
BASIS OF COMPLAINANT'S CHARGE AGAINST THE ACCUSED:  On January 28, 2022, Customs and Border Protection Officers (CBPOs) encountered Megan Marie FLOYD and Jaylene Emerald WEITZMAN as they applied for entry into the United States from the Republic of Mexico through the DeConcini Port of Entry in Nogales, Arizona. FLOYD was the driver of a 2015 GMC Terrain that is registered to WEITZMAN . In primary inspection, FLOYD offered an Arizona drivers license as identification and CBPOs noticed WEITZMAN was hesitant to provide identification. CBPOs referred FLOYD and WEITZMAN to secondary for further inspection where the vehicle was scanned with the Z-Portal x-ray scanner. CBPOs then conducted a pat down of both FLOYD and WEITZMAN . CBPOs asked WEITZMAN if she had any drugs on her person to which she stated she did not but during the pat down, CBPOs discovered a hard protrusion in her vaginal area. CBPOs asked FLOYD if she had any drugs on her to which she responded "yes". WEITZMAN voluntarily removed one package and FLOYD voluntarily removed two packages which were concealed in their vaginal areas. A representative sample of the contents of the packages tested positive for the characteristics of fentanyl. The fentanyl had a total weight of 374.1 grams.  After waiving her Miranda rights, FLOYD stated she was approached by WEITZMAN on the morning of January 28, 2022, about driving into Mexico for the purpose of smuggling drugs back into the United States. FLOYD stated that upon arriving in Mexico, she and WEITZMAN were convinced to smuggle drugs on their persons.
